

Bureau for Student Counselling & Career Development
Study skills pamphlets

Learning Styles

Knowledge about your learning style could help you to make better use of your available study time.

General information

- Learning Styles (University of Minnesota Duluth)
<http://www.d.umn.edu/student/loon/acad/strat/lrnsty.html>
What is Learning Style? Important theories in learning.
- Learning Styles (University of Columbia)
<http://turmac13.chem.columbia.edu/LearnTeach/learnstyles.html>
- Learning styles
<http://granite.cyg.net/~jblackmo/diglib/styl-a.html>
Determine your learning style
- Index of Learning Styles questionnaire
<http://www2.ncsu.edu/unity/lockers/users/f/felder/public/ILSdir/ilsweb.html>
Determine your learning style.
- Personal Learning Style Inventory (Centre for Advancement of Learning)
<http://muskingum.edu/~cal/database/inventory.html>
- A learning style survey for college
http://www.metamath.com//multiple/multiple_choice_questions.cgi
Identify your preferred learning style as well as suggested learning strategies.

This document is available on-line at: <https://sol.unisa.ac.za/counselling/>.
Unisa Bureau for Student Counselling & Career Development
E-mail: counselling@unisa.ac.za