Women-in-Research annual lecture

INVITATION

The Executive Director for Research, Professor Maluleke, would like the pleasure of your company and would like to invite you to the 2010 UNISA Women-in-Research (UWiR) Annual Lecture. Leading woman researcher, Professor Mpilo Pearl Sithole, from the School of Social Work and Community Development, UKZN, will be the key-note speaker. The UWiR Annual Lecture is part of the UWiR Initiative which is a programme designed to enhance and elevate the levels of women's participation in research at UNISA.

The programme entails i) the provision of financial support for women doing doctoral research; ii) conducting a bi-annual audit of the profiles of UNISA women in research, iii) the show-casing of research conducted by women at UNISA.
