SOCIAL AND HEALTH SCIENCES ONLINE LAUNCH: Psychosocial Responses to COVID-19

We are excited to announce the online launch for the peer-reviewed academic journal, Social and Health Sciences (formerly African Safety Promotion: A Journal of Injury and Violence Prevention).

Social and Health Sciences is a multidisciplinary forum for critical discussion and debate among scholars, practitioners, activists, students and policy-makers whose interests and work intersect with the social and health sciences. While based in Africa, Social and Health Sciences invites submissions from the broader Global South, as well as the Global North.

The launch will centre on psychosocial responses to COVID-19 and will include talks from some of those who contributed to our Inaugural Special Issue on this topic:

1. Introducing Social and Health Sciences
Nick Malherbe and Ashley van Niekerk
2. Navigating and Reimagining Community Engagement Amidst COVID-19
Seneca Louw, Nalema Taliep, Ghouwa Ismail and Samed Bulbulia
3. COVID-19: Violent Policing of Black Men during Lockdown Regulations in South Africa
Malose Langa and Bandile Leopeng
4. COVID-19 Pandemic and Disability: Essential Considerations
Lieketseng Ned
5. The Politics and Art of Naming and Re-Presenting Identity in the COVID-19 Pandemic
Thirusha Naidu

We look forward to seeing you there!
