

Have you heard about the Unisa Institutional Repository (UIR)?

It contains published Unisa theses and dissertations, journal articles, conference papers, rare and special materials and many other digital resources

The UIR consists of communities that are arranged according to Colleges, Schools and Departments.

The published theses and dissertations can assist postgraduate students with the structure of their own thesis or dissertation. In addition, the UIR contains a wide variety of material published by Unisa staff members and is freely accessible to everyone.

To access the Unisa Institutional Repository, click on the following link: <https://uir.unisa.ac.za/>