

College of Science, Engineering and Technology - new qualifications for the 2020 academic year

The College of Science, Engineering and Technology is pleased to announce that we recently received the South African Qualifications Authority (SAQA) registrations for the following exciting new qualifications to be offered from January 2020:

Qualification name	SAQA registration I.D. Number
360 credit Diploma in Chemical Engineering	112178
360 credit Diploma in Civil Engineering	111282
360 credit Diploma in Electrical Engineering	111285
Advanced Diploma in Electrical Engineering in Power Engineering	112179
Advanced Diploma in Electrical Engineering in Telecommunications Engineering	112182
Advanced Diploma in Engineering in Mechanical Engineering	111145
Advanced Diploma in Mining Engineering	110668

These qualifications are now available to students who may wish to apply. Kindly visit the UNISA website for the minimum admission requirements for these qualifications.

The following new HEQSF aligned qualifications are now fully accredited by the Council of Higher Education (CHE) BUT are still waiting for SAQA registration. The College will inform the community at large as soon as the qualifications receive the SAQA IDs and are available to students.

Qualification name	SAQA registration I.D. Number
360 credit Diploma in Mechanical Engineering	The qualifications listed in this table cannot be offered until the SAQA registration process has been finalised. As soon as the SAQA registration process is finalized, UNISA will publish the admission requirements for these qualifications.
360 credit Diploma in Industrial Engineering
360 credit Diploma in Pulp and Paper technology
Advanced Diploma in Industrial Engineering
Advanced Diploma in Civil Engineering
Advanced Diploma in Chemical Engineering
Master of Engineering
Higher Certificate in Mathematics and Statistics

Please visit the UNISA website for the latest developments in the SAQA qualifications registrations.