

Unisa confirms that Sarah-Jane Trent is a graduate of the institution

Approved for public release

Monday, 09 March 2026

The University of South Africa (Unisa) hereby confirms that Ms Sarah-Jane Trent is a graduate of the university and holds a Bachelor of Laws (LLB) degree, which she obtained in May 2013.

Unisa once again distances itself from the statement circulated on social media purported to be from the institution, which was denying that Ms Trent holds a degree from Unisa.

It also condemns in the strongest terms the manipulation and misuse of the university' templates and logo, which are in the public domain, to misrepresent its position.

The relevant units within the university will be requested to investigate the origins of the misleading statement and abuse of our resources; and take appropriate legal action.
