UNISA STATEMENT ON STAFF PROTEST ACTION

Approved for Public Release

29 January 2020

Unisa is currently experiencing protest action by organised labour and wage negotiations are taking place with a view to reach an amicable agreement as soon as possible.

Unisa students are encouraged to apply and register online while the university is affected by the staff strike. The closing date for Semester 1 registration and minimum payment have been extended to 1 February 2020.

Unisa urges students to pay their registration fees in order for the university to issue their study material. Applicants are also requested to accept offers within two days and to pay immediately so that their registration can be finalised, and study material issued.
