WhatsApp Open Online Courses

Have you ever thought of yourself as being a globally recognised professional? Join us for an evening with Facebook and WOOCs on 26 October from 18:00-19:00.

Find out how Facebook Marketing and a Blueprint certification can boost your business, your career and your cred.

This condensed Virtual Bootcamps Blueprint module will help you establish your presence on Facebook and gain an understanding into our audience and measurement tools – making it easier than ever before to grow your business and get started with Facebook Marketing.

Don't miss out.

Book your spot now

You can also try our WhatsApp bot and learn right on your phone. WOOCs – WhatsApp Open Online Courses will prepare you to get certified as a Facebook Certified Marketing Associate by giving you access to rich course content, quizzes, mentors and study groups. It's quality learning without using a lot of data. And it's all on your own terms, and in your own time.
