

EXECUTIVE DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

2022 INTAKE

TUITION FEES

R88 263*

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

In an environment that is increasingly digital, fluid and unpredictable, executives in both the public and private sectors must be adept strategists and innovators. The EDP, which uses the latest business technologies, develops executives to manage and lead organisations in strategic decision-making cognisant of global, national and organisational contexts. The programme combines global management insight, leadership acumen, strategic-thinking skills and hands-on implementation of e-business applications, a skills set that lends itself to success in the ever-changing information economy. The EDP has business and public sector streams.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Participants in the EDP must be in possession of a postgraduate NQF Level 7 qualification and have at least ten years' managerial experience. Alternatively a portfolio of evidence of prior learning will be considered, based on Unisa's policy requirements for short learning programmes.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS?

The EDP will contribute towards improved understanding, increased knowledge and learning and more effective performance for both individuals and their organisations.
