

Management Development Programme Safety and Security 2019

4 SAFETY first

MANAGEMENT DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME SAFETY AND SECURITY (SSMDP)

As a middle manager in the safety and security industry, you face a distinctive set of leadership challenges. You are responsible for leading your administrative unit, crafting strategy, motivating staff, and allocating financial resources, but are also expected to enact the vision of senior leadership and mobilise support for broader institutional goals. To be successful, you must be adept at managing both “up” and “down” the institutional hierarchy.
