

LEADING FOR INNOVATION

2024 INTAKE

ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

Few words in business and other organisations are used as often and as incorrectly as 'innovation'. Yet, despite this lack of understanding on what innovation is and how to develop innovative organisations, it remains one of the most important functions of any organisation.

In the Leading for Innovation (LFI) course we focus on how to lead for innovation, exploring the processes and practices that leaders can use to boost innovation in their organisations.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

If you are a senior manager in the public and private sector with a minimum of Matric or equivalent, plus an NQF level 8 qualification with at least 10 years' managerial experience. Alternatively a portfolio of evidence of prior learning will be considered based on Unisa's policy requirements for short learning programmes.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS?

If you are a senior manager in the public and private sector with a minimum of Matric or equivalent, plus an NQF level 8 qualification with at least 10 years' managerial experience. Alternatively a portfolio of evidence of prior learning will be considered based on Unisa's policy requirements for short learning programmes.

STUDY SCHOOLS

Study school attendance is compulsory. These engagements are offered virtually or at the SBL campus in Midrand. For customised offerings, study schools could be offered at a venue of choice by the client. The dates of the study schools will be made available following successful application and registration.

ASSESSMENT

Assessment is made based on the submission of individual and group assignments together with a portfolio of evidence.

ON COMPLETION

On successful completion of the programme, students will receive the Leading for Innovation Certificate from the Unisa Graduate School of Business Leadership (SBL), an internationally respected educational institution.

WHEN CAN YOU APPLY?

Applications for the LFI are open until 14 July 2023. Please note the Application Fee for 2023 is R600 and is in addition to the tuition fees.
